Coalition Updates.

- The Asia Energy Network (AEN), Asian Peoples' Movement on Debt and Development (APMDD), and Sunrise Organising Lab (SOL) organised an Asian Finance Campaigners Training last week in Manila,

Philippines. Participants from various countries in Asia, joined this 3-day training to understand how private and public finance actors are linked to the debt, development, climate, energy and other issues they are working on. MIRA representative also joined this training to learn about the specific finance actors, including private international banks, insurance companies, investors, asset owners, asset managers; as well as areas like financial regulation, and bonds in relation to the extractive sector.
